From Tuesday June 18, to Saturday June 22, 1754.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 21ſt Day of June 1754,

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

Kenſington, June 20.

This Day the Chevalier d'Abreu, charged with the Affairs of the King of Spain, had his firſt private Audience of His Majeſty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable Sir Thomas Robinſon, Knight of the Bath, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Charles Cottrell, Eſq; Aſſiſtant Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Conſtantinople, May 5. The Grand Seignior has not only ordered all the Treaſure of the Governor of Damaſcus to be ſeized, but alſo turned him out of his Poſt, and confined him in a Tower on the Borders of the Black Sea. The Reaſon given for his Sublime Highneſs's acting in this ſevere Manner, is, the repeated Complaints he has received of the extravagant Demands and Extortions exacted by that Governor from the Chriſtians who paſſed through his Province in their Way to Jeruſalem, or any other Part of Paleſtine.

Moſcow, May 13. On Saturday laſt her Imperial Majeſty returned to this City from Troitzka, and this Morning ſhe went to the Monaſtery of Jeruſalem, where ſhe propoſes to ſpend ſome Days. The Great Prince and Great Princeſs intend to ſet out for Peterſbourg towards the End of this Week, but the Day of the Empreſs's Departure is not abſolutely fixed. The Regiments of Foot of Ouglitzkoi and Tſchernigoffſkoi, are on their March from Nerva to Peterſbourg, in order to embark in the Gallies that are equipping there by her Imperial Majeſty's Order.

Naples, May 21. Their Majeſties and the whole Court continue at Portici, where ſeveral extraordinary Councils have lately been held upon Diſpatches received from Madrid and Parma. Cardinal Serſale, our new Archbiſhop, is daily expected here from Rome, ſeveral of his Domeſticks, and great Part of his Equipage, being already arrived.

Milan, May 28. Count Chriſtiani, Great Chancellor of this Dutchy, propoſes to ſet out in a few Days for Vaprio, where he is appointed to regulate, with the Venetian Commiſſary, certain Limits in Diſpute in Iſtria and Frioule. The Duke of Modena is expected here towards the Middle of next Month, and they are already making Preparations for his Reception.

Dreſden, June 4. The King's Departure for Poland being fixed for the 17th Inſtant, moſt of the Foreign Miniſters are preparing to follow his Majeſty.

Bonn, June 10. The Elector our Sovereign has received an Account from Munich, that the Princeſs, Spouſe to Duke Clement of Bavaria, was delivered of a Prince on the 1ſt Inſtant, who died within half an Hour after its Birth: She had gone but ſeven Months of her Time.

Bruſſels, June 10. The Canal from Bruges to Ghent is almoſt finiſhed, and will certainly be very advantageous, not only to thoſe two Places, but to all the neighbouring Country. The Duke of Ahrenberg, who went lately to Luxembourg, to aſſiſt at the Aſſembly of the States of that Dutchy, and to make ſome Propoſitions to that Aſſembly on Behalf of the Empreſs Queen, is returned here from thence, extremely ſatisfied with the Execution of the Commiſſion with which he was charged.

Paris, June 14. The King, who has been for ſome Time at Crecy, went from thence to Verſailles

[Price Two-Pence.]

Verſailles on Monday laſt. The Departure of the Court for Compiegne is fixed for the firſt of next Month; but as Madame the Dauphine is far advanced in her Pregnancy, ſhe is adviſed not to undertake that Journey. They write from Madrid, that the Squadron, which has been for ſome Time fitting out at Barcelona, is ſailed from that Port for the Place of its Deſtination.

Hague, June 18. We are informed by an Expreſs from Oranje-Woud, that her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante, accompanied by the young Prince Stadtholder, and the Princeſs Caroline, arrived there on Saturday laſt, in perfect Health. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland ſeparated laſt Friday. M. vanden Clooſter has taken the uſual Oaths to their High Mightineſſes the States General, in Quality of Major General of Foot; as has M. Bruce to the Council of State, to qualify him for the Poſt of Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Sporke. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante has been pleaſed to appoint Baron Ootmarſum, to be High Bailiff of the Quarter of Twente, in the Room of Count Charles Bentinck, who has obtained her Royal Highneſs's Leave to reſign that Employment; and M. Raesfeld is appointed High Bailiff of Haxbergen and Diepenheim. M. Berkenrode, Ambaſſador from this Republick to the Court of France, ſet out on Sunday laſt in the Afternoon for Paris; but 'tis ſaid he has Orders to ſtop at Bruſſels for ſome Days.

IN the Year 1752 I was called to a Girl about eighteen Years of Age, by her Father, who told me ſhe had loſt her Speech twenty-four Hours. I found the Girl had no perceptible Pulſe, and I could but juſt perceive her to breathe, except ſometimes when ſhe fetch'd a deep Sigh. Her Eyes were fixed, and her Extremities cold. In this deplorable Situation, I endeavoured to get down ſome of Dr. James's Fever Powder, mixed with a little Treacle. After ſeveral Attempts, ſhe took the Quantity of a Quarter of a Paper. I found that in half an Hour ſhe grew warmer, I could juſt perceive a Pulſation at the Wriſt, and ſhe breathed with Difficulty; ſoon after this ſhe moved her Eyes, and in leſs than an Hour puk'd once, and then aſked to drink. I gave her ſome Gruel, and half a Paper more of Powder (her Pulſe was at this raiſed and quick). After taking this Doſe ſhe fell aſleep, and a gentle Sweat came on her: And in about two Hours ſhe awaked, had a Stool, and brought away ſeveral Worms of different Sizes. She complained of no Pain, except in her Belly. I now left her, with Directions to give her a Quarter of a Paper of Powder every ſix Hours; to keep her from getting Cold, and to give her Gruel to drink. She took four Doſes of the Powder as above-mentioned, and ſweated greatly for thirty Hours, during which Time ſhe had ſeveral fetid Stools, and brought off a very great Number of Worms, ſome dead, but moſt of them alive. From this Time ſhe began to recover, and in three Weeks was able to walk up a Hill, which a Difficulty of Breathing for ſix Months before had prevented her from doing. I gave her an Ounce of Elixir Proprietatis, to take ſome of it Morning and Evening. Her Stomach came to her, and ſhe was perfectly well in five Weeks Time.
